

Japan Summer Manga Tour 2025

13 – 21 August 2025

The holiday of a lifetime for fans of manga, anime, and all aspects of Japanese pop culture! As well as visits to Akihabara and Nakano Broadway, we take you to all sorts of fantastic anime/manga related places in Tokyo! We start out by visiting the coveted Ghibli Museum, before moving on to quirky Harajuku, where we'll see the latest trends in fashion and food among Japanese youth. A trip to Japan wouldn't be complete without seeing the infamous Shibuya Crossing and statue of Hachiko, the dog who waited for his owner every day at the station. After that, we visit Ikebukuro, home to Japan's largest Pokemon Centre and Animate store, Akihabara, and so much more! Experience Tokyo in all its neon glory with the original Japan Summer Manga Tour. We don't just visit Japan – we live it!

Japan Summer Manga Tour 2025 Highlights:

Studio Ghibli Museum

Visit Tokyo's Studio Ghibli Museum, dedicated to the art and animation of Japan's most famous animation company. Inside, see the process of creating an animated film, with sketches, storyboarding, keyframing, cleanup, colouring and background painting. Other sights to see include a replica Catbus from My Neighbour Totoro, and a 5 metre tall replica statue from Laputa!

Nakano Broadway

Nakano Broadway is home to over 30 Mandarake stores – stores selling used (but like new!) pop culture memorabilia. From anime figurines to Godzilla statues, you can find it all in this quirky street-styled mall! Also to not be missed for arcade fans are the connecting arcades, where you can play a number of arcade games including Taiko no Tatsujin, a rhythm game where you hit a huge replica Taiko drum!

Harajuku

Harajuku is where the latest trends in fashion and food amongst trendy Japanese youth are born and thrive. From Lolita fashion to cosplay, Harajuku has it all, and nearby Yoyogi Park is home to a thriving scene of 1950s-style rockers and street performers. Harajuku's hub is the bustling Takeshita Dori (Takeshita Street), which is full of trendy clothes shops and Instagrammable crepe, cotton floss, and donut stores. There's something for everyone, and we'll visit the nearby Meiji Jingu shrine too!

Asakusa

Asakusa is home to one of Tokyo's most colourful and popular temples, Sensoji Temple. Going from the outer gate to the temple's second gate, you will find the lively Nakamise street. Here, you will find many Japanese souvenirs such as yukata and folding fans, as well as traditional Japanese sweets. Beyond the Hozomon Gate (the second gate) stands the temple's main hall and a five-storied pagoda.

Ikebukuro

Famous for the Sunshine City mall, home to the biggest Pokémon Centre Japan, thousands flock to Ikebukuro every weekend to cosplay, meet up with friends, and show off merchandise of their favourite characters with intricately-designed bags. Just a short walk from Sunshine City is the whopping 8 floor high Animate Ikebukuro, the flagship store of the biggest anime and manga retailer in Japan.

Shibuya

Along the way, we'll visit Shibuya and cross the famous Shibuya Crossing - the world's busiest pedestrian crossing. Here, you will also get the chance to see the Hachiko Statue: a statue of a loyal dog named Hachiko who waited for his owner at Shibuya Station every day years after he had passed away. Nearby Shibuya 109 is famous for its fashion retail, and will be familiar to fans of Japanese pop culture, as it and Shibuya Crossing have featured in many, including The World Ends With You and Alice In Borderland!

Akihabara

Akihabara is perhaps Japan's most famous anime and manga subculture hotspot. Known by the locals as Akiba, Akihabara is a district famous for its many electronics shops. Here you can find many shops selling anime merchandise, figures, trading cards, as well as many second-hand retro electronic gadgets – all of which look brand new!

One Week Extension Package Highlights:

Kyoto

Kyoto is where you will find the Japan of silent temples nestling in bamboo groves, gardens of finely raked sand and bewitching geisha. This city is home to over 2,000 temples and shrines, exquisite crafts and some of the best cuisine in the country. In short, Kyoto is the heartbeat of traditional Japan.

Not to be missed are Kinkaku-ji, Ginkaku-ji and Kiyomizu temples, although be aware that these do become crowded. For a more peaceful, intimate temple experience we recommend the temple complex of Daitoku-ji, in particular Daisen- in sub-temple, and the Arashiyama area to the west of the city.

Also enjoy trips to nearby Nara and Osaka! Explore Nara's 8 UNESCO World Heritage sites and meet its famous bowing deer, and experience the best of Japanese cooking in lively and welcoming Osaka.

Hiroshima, Miyajima Island

Hiroshima is an attractive, cosmopolitan city which has risen from the ashes of the world's first atomic bomb attack on 6 August 1945. The hypocentre of the explosion is now the Peace Memorial Park, flanked by the A-Bomb Dome, the former Industrial Promotion Hall which is the only surviving building from the blast. A superb network of trams will transport you around the city to some of Hiroshima's other attractions, namely Hiroshima Castle and Hiroshima Museum of Art. You can also use the tram to take the scenic route to Miyajima Island, famous for Itsukushima Shrine and its torii gate that appears to be floating on the sea.
